Class Meetings:

Unless cancelled, class meets on Mondays on the following 13 dates:

9/14, 9/21, 9/28, 10/5, 10/12, 10/19, 10/26, 11/2, 11/9, 11/16, 11/30, 12/7, 12/14

Course Description:

This practical beginner course teaches web design from the ground up. Over the course of the semester, students will create their own website following industry standard design and production processes. Students will learn to identify site needs and audiences, organize content, use Adobe Photoshop to create a site design, code their website in HTML5 and CSS3, and publish it online.

Prerequisites: Photoshop or Illustrator, or the written permission of the instructor.

Text Books and Materials:

Required:

- An email address
- Web hosting service of your own choosing
- A domain name of your own choosing
- Any form of portable media that you can use to easily store and retrieve your work
- CSS: The Missing Manual by David Sawyer McFarland

Recommended:

- CSS Mastery: Advanced Web Standards Solutions by Andy Budd, Cameron Moll & Simon Collison
- Adobe CS5 Software Suite

Class Attendance:

Attendance is required and expected of you.

Absences are unacceptable, 3 absences will result in automatically failing the course.

Tardies are unacceptable, 2 tardies equals one absence.

Leaving class early equals one tardy.

Class Project:

There will be 1 major project in this course; a website that will be created using Dreamweaver and published online. Students will be asked to provide all content and graphics for their own projects. Failure to provide text or images for your own project will significantly lower your grade in the course. Please be prepared!

Grading:

Production: Deadlines & Deliverables	25%
Quality: Design, Navigation & Functionality	25%
In-Class Assignments: only if finished in-class	30%
Participation: Presenting & Critique Feedback	20%

Course Schedule:

The following schedule is subject to change at my discretion. If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to find out from your classmates what, if any, changes to the schedule have been made. Unless you receive an exemption from me, you will be responsible upon returning to class for both the current weeks assignments, as well as the assignments for the week you missed.
